United For Justice: Save Legal Aid

July 30, 2019 at 7 – 9:30pm

Location: Bloor Street United Church
300 Bloor Street, Toronto
(1 block west of St. George Subway Station)

People who are too often held voiceless will share their experiences and their stories.

Join us for music and entertainment - including a performance by slam poet Mohammed Ali - as well as panel discussions on the devastating impacts the Ford government's legal aid cuts are and will have on already vulnerable communities.

STOP

THE BIGGEST CUTS TO LEGAL AID & COMMUNITY LEGAL CLINICS EVER!

JOIN US IN THE FIGHT FOR ACCESS TO JUSTICE

Everyone pays for Doug Ford's cuts to health care, education, and social services. The cuts to legal aid and legal clinics target Ontario's poorest and most vulnerable:

- Tenants facing an eviction
- Immigrants
- Refugees
- Women fleeing violence
- People with disabilities
- People struggling with mental health
- People on social assistance
- Low wage workers
- Temporary foreign workers
- Workers injured on the job
- Parents with custody or protection issues
- And more...

Tell Attorney General Doug Downey and Doug Ford that justice is a fundamental right for ALL Ontarians.

Hey @douglasdowney, as Ontario's new Attorney General, your first move should be to reverse cuts to @LegalAidOntario. #StopTheCuts that will hurt the people of Ontario. @fordnation @OPSEU @TheSociety #onpoli @ACLCO_On #Justice4All
